This is a retired service due to lack of demand.

It is not necessary to set up BGP sessions with other members connected to this VLAN. It is enough to set up a session with the TREX IPv4 Multicast Route Server. Direct sessions between members are still recommended for redundancy.

The VLAN can be requested in native form without any encapsulation in a port, or encapsulated with IEEE802.1q.